STORY OF THE MONTH

No more Barriers: Women step into male-dominated sectors

NTL beneficiary at Petrol Pump, Nashik

CYDA launched the "Non-traditional Livelihood" initiative with a vision to create a gender-neutral society. This initiative aims to ensure equal participation of women in male-dominated fields by equipping selected beneficiaries with the necessary skills to access non-traditional sectors. It is currently being implemented in multiple locations across Maharashtra. (Reported- Yogesh Nerpagar)

Nashik:

- Following rigorous training, CYDA is pleased to announce that 33 resilient women have successfully commenced their vocations at Petrol Pumps, Toll Plazas, and Malls.
- Their earnings range from Rs. 6,000/- to Rs. 14,000/- and they have transitioned from being unemployed to employed, marking a significant change in their economic status.

Distribution of Education Kits for a Bright Academic Journey

Students of Jijamata Prathamik and Madhyamik Vidyalaya, Bhosari receiving their school kits

As part of the "WASH in Schools Program," CYDA in collaboration with CIE Automotive India Ltd. organized a School Kit Distribution event at Jijamata Prathamik and Madhyamik Vidyalaya, Bhosari. A total of 435 students benefitted from this initiative. Mr. Anup Mishra, Chief Business Controller and CIO, inaugurated the event. Also present were Mr. Vinayak Kadaskar, HR Head, along with CIE team members Mr. Ashok Bhimanpalli, Mr. Sunil Mohini, Mr. Hemant Shinde, and Mr. Prashant Sharma. They interacted with the students and encouraged them to pursue their goals. Mr. Pravin Jadhav, Executive Director of CYDA, also shared insights into the program's objectives.

CYDA joins Civic Bodies to safeguard Mother Earth through Tree Plantation and Awareness Campaigns

CYDA, in collaboration with other civic bodies, initiated tree plantation drives and social awareness campaigns to protect Mother Earth. World Nature Conservation Day celebrated on 28th July raises awareness about environmental threats. CYDA joined its mission to emphasize the importance of ensuring a sustainable ecosystem for future generations. Responsible and prompt action from everyone is vital.

Unlocking Potential: STEM Innovation Learning Centre offers Adolescents and Youth a Journey of Knowledge and Fun

Live telecast of Chandrayaan 3 at STEM ILC, Yerawada

At the STEM Innovation Learning Centre, adolescents and youth have the opportunity to receive guidance and explore their potential, embarking on a journey filled with knowledge, experimentation, and fun. On 14 July, 2023, the successful launch of Chandrayaan 3 LVM took place. To enhance their curiosity and provide a better understanding of this mission, CYDA arranged a live telecast session at the STEM Innovation Learning Centre. Following the event, there was an engaging discussion on space and science, further fueling their interest.

In July, the adolescents and youth champions also celebrated Moon Day with enthusiasm at the STEM Innovation Learning Centre. They had the opportunity to showcase their talents by presenting various projects of the lunar eclipse using different coding techniques. Mr. Touseef Sayyed, Program Manager, HCNF, graced the occasion and interacted with the champions. As part of our continuous efforts to enhance digital and coding skills, the champions now have access to the Tab at the STEM Innovation Learning Centre. (Reported- Amruta Pawar)

CYDA's Impactful Outreach: Empowering Marginalized Communities and Migrant Workers, Extending Educational Opportunities to Children

Migrants with the safety kits and BOCW cards

CYDA remains dedicated to integrating marginalized communities into the mainstream, offering unwavering support to migrant workers. Continuing its commitment, in July, CYDA extended assistance to 21 migrants, enabling them to avail benefits of the BOCW (Building and Other Construction Worker) card. CYDA also provided them with essential safety kits and facilitated access to Governmental Educational Schemes for the children of these migrant workers.

CYDA and Caritas India joined forces to provide Education Kits to 31 children (Grades 5 to 10) of migrant workers at Kamgar Kalyan Seva Sahayog Centre, Yerawada. The main objective of the drive was to create an enabling environment for the children of migrant workers, and ensuring them of a smooth academic journey. Mr. Lijoy Joseph, the representative of Caritas India, and Mr. Daniel Landge, the local Corporator, graced the occasion. (Reported- Sumit Chandanshive)

Solidarity Soars Nationwide: CYDA and Pune Youth March for Peace in Support of Manipur

Youths during the Peace March for Manipur

The pain of Manipur extends beyond its boundaries and has captured the nation's attention. Many now stand in solidarity with Manipur. In Pune, CYDA, along with many like-minded organizations, came forward to express their solidarity and concern and called for prompt action. Around 21 youth from CYDA's Peace4Change wing actively participated in the Peace March, advocating for solutions through constitutional means. (Reported- Kaustubh Bhamare)

CYDA's Emphasis on Skill, Scale, and Speed: Youth Enrich Knowledge in Seminars and Conferences

CYDA continuously prioritizes Skill, Scale, and Speed in its approach. Recognizing that learning is an eternal process, it provides abundant opportunities to grow. In July, adolescents and youth actively participated in various seminars and conferences, further enriching their knowledge. (Reported- Najiya Shaikh)
